Class of 1977

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT JAMES G. BOND

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY. SACRAMENTO

6000 J STREET, SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA 95819

To the Graduate:

All of us at your university wish you the very best in the years ahead.

The knowledge and skills you have worked hard to acquire at California State University, Sacramento, will enrich your life and, through you, our society. But there is more to university life than the pursuit of knowledge. We hope the people you have met and the experiences you have had here will open wide the doorway to all that life offers.

Congratulations on accomplishment of your goal. While your university bids you farewell with pride and affection, we look forward to your continuing interest in CSUS as an alumnus.

Cordially,

DISTRIBUTION OF DIPLOMAS

1973

1973 was the year in which national and international politics were in the news: immediately after Nixon's swearing in, Lyndon Johnson died, followed in February by the opening of the Watergate investigations and the seizing of Wounded Knee by the American Indians. April brought the nation-wide meat boycott, and the launching of Skylab, the orbiting space station. Finally, the departure of the last combat troops from Vietnam was followed by the Chilean coup, Agnew's resignation, the beginning of yet another Middle East war, the rationing of gasoline in the United States and the final disappointment of Comet Kahoutek.

THE WORLD AROUND US

1974

By 1974 the United States was making moves to adjust to a milieu of seeming crises. The Alaskan pipeline was approved, Kissinger's negotiations in the Middle East finally resulted in an accord, while the Republican Administration was increasingly under fire in the Watergate investigations. Americans were horrified at the kidnapping of Patty Hearst and amazed at the resignation of Nixon's top aides, and also intrigued by Mariner 10's fly-by of Mercury, Hank Aaron's 715th home run, and Russia's deporting of Solzhenitsyn. In July, the American political crisis came to a head with the subpoenaing of Nixon's tapes, his resignation in August, and Ford's pardon in September. Finally, Ford approved private ownership of gold and the Oil Embargo was lifted.

1975

In 1975 the United States began its adjustment to a world where events seemed to out-run our capacity to absorb them. While Rockefeller began investigations into the misdeeds of the CIA and Ford announced the U.S. was in a recession, the Bicentennial celebrations officially began. In April, Vietnam again entered the news as the remaining U.S. personnel had to be evacuated from Saigon. Meanwhile, New York City was in the midst of financial crisis. The danger of aerosol sprays to the atmosphere, an assassination attempt on Ford, the UN declaration of Zionism as a form of racism, and the dictatorial emergency in India were other newsworthy events.

THE WORLD AROUND US

1976

America demonstrated its capacity to adapt in 1976. Old faces reappeared and new faces stepped forward to provide new hopes. The Winter Olympics, Surveyor's Mars photos, the national political conventions and the election of Jimmy Carter dominated the news and TV screens. The U.S. began to celebrate our 200th birthday. Marijuana was decriminalized in California, a new investigation of the Kennedy and King assassinations was begun, and in Congress a new scandal began as a result of Elizabeth Ray's revelations. Meanwhile, old faces made one last appearance as Eldridge Cleaver returned to the U.S. for trial, Mao died in China, and King Kong returned to New York in an oil tanker.
